

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO BAIL

Georgia law gives the right of bail to youth under the jurisdiction of the Juvenile Courts.

All children subject to the jurisdiction of the juvenile court and alleged to have committed a delinquent act shall have the same right to bail as adults. The judge shall admit to bail all children under the court's jurisdiction in the same manner and under the same circumstances and procedures as are applicable to adults accused of the commission of crimes. Any person having legal custody or an adult blood relative or stepparent of an alleged delinquent child shall be entitled to post bail but shall be required immediately to return the child to the individual or entity having legal custody of the child.

If you have questions about how to post bail, call, write or ask your parent or guardian, your lawyer, your judge or the court worker handling your case in court.
