

Good Behavior Bill Flow Chart for DFs

Release from YDC
Flow chart received from case worker.

Intensive supervision as ordered by the court
No moderate or serious graduated sanctions
No new delinquent or adult charges (including pending)
High school diploma or GED, Service Learning Project, Restitution
Progress in treatment and service plan
Completion of specialized treatment (sex offender/substance abuse) if applicable

Once period of Intensive Supervision is completed, if criteria are met the case worker can begin the process of requesting termination.

If another party (parents, lawyer, etc.) submits a request for termination, the case worker is to prepare a recommendation.

The termination request if submitted to the JPM.

The recommendation is prepared and submitted to the JPM for approval.

The JPM reviews and, if approved, submits to the District Director.

The DD reviews and, if approved, submits to the Regional Administrator.

The RA reviews and, if approved, submits to the Deputy Commissioner or Designee.

If approved by DC or Designee, submits to DJJ Legal.

DJJ Legal then submits to the State Attorney General's Office.

The State Attorney General may then motion the court for a hearing.

The JPM reviews and, if approved, submits to the District Director.

The DD reviews and, if approved, submits to the Regional Administrator

The RA reviews and, if approved, submits to the Deputy Commissioner or Designee.

If approved by DC or Designee, submits to DJJ Legal.

DJJ Legal then reviews and approval is sent to the case worker.